

Thank You, President Bush: Reflections on the War on Terror, Defense of the Family, and Revival of the Economy

In time for the most critical election in years, Thank You, President Bush is a collection of essays reflecting on George W. Bush's first four years as president. Through observations from some of the nation's leading thinkers, this readable anthology explores the administration's accomplishments and future agenda. Contributors include Gov. Jeb Bush and former Sec. of State George Shultz.
